Chips

We see by the papers that Jerry Sickler attended the typical luncheon given by the Home Economics Department. And in the next paragraph we read that the dear girls are making a study of calories present in lunches. Something ought to be done about this.

Phi Sig goats attempted to get revenge on the brothers, we hear. The percolator broke and glass splinters were distributed among the coffee grounds. Only careful straining of the slush prevented a catastrophe during the morning meal.

Our distinguished contemporary, The Catholic University Tower, in the course of a news story says in part, "A very interesting chat was given by Honorable Dean Doyle of George Washington, who discussed 'Misrepresented Collegians.' Dear, dear."

"Frosh Engage Middies," says headline. "Thought they left that to the girls."

See where the Columbian Debaters favor trial by jury. The English evidently didn't settle that several centuries back. Dr. Trilema will want to tell his class in Comparative European Governments about that.

This column, "Medeoches" seems to be cranking up a set. This particular paper is the only one where intentional wisecracks are supposed to be made.

See where any one of our teams may carry off the gonfalon in an interfraternity basketball league. A gonfalon, according to Messrs. Funk and Wagnalls, is a pennant hanging from a mast, and originated with the Pope. If such a trophy is presented, the gonfs won't have to shine it at any rate.

"Mothers of '22' Will Be All Day Guests of G. W."—Headline.

Booths will be awarded prizes at the County Fair. Yale has its star, Abbie, and The Hatchet boasts of Betty. We suggest that the prize go, however, to the phone booth where only right numbers are passed out.

Maybe we'll have more luck in our Virginia football games, now that a G. W. alumnus is to be governor of that State. Had his opponent won, an ex-faculty of G. W. would have been governor, for Brown taught here at summer school a few years ago.

Freshman women are to be educated in rush rules by the Panhellenic Council or something like that. It calls remarks we have heard have any basis, some upperclass women need educating, too.

Utopia seems to have been achieved in the matter of getting photographs taken for the Cherry Tree. We told you to watch Bucky, now see what he's done. He has grabbed off the top floor of a newly acquired University building, established a studio, and dressing rooms therein, and has made the photographer promise to be on deck day and night, as well as exacting a statement that the two dollar deposit made on the initial photo will count for future portraits that might be made.

Princeton University celebrated the 199th birthday of the poet Virgil by placing on exhibition rare and valuable copies of his works. Couldn't they wait another year, since he's been dead so long already?

Every freshman at New York University must be ducked on Halloween in the fountain behind the Hall of Fame. That's as near as most of them will come to getting in, we fear.

A halfback down in Tennessee entered college without ever having seen a team he played on defeated. He had been playing football for six years. We suppose that one extreme is as boring as the other.

Antioch College has introduced what it believes to be the first collegiate "Leap Week" during which co-eds do all the dating. Nothing is said about the paying, however. And besides, don't they have Panhellenic Proms?

It is said that a movement for the revival of whiskers has been started in France. We need no revival, for we have a School of Pharmacy.

Well, the varsity still has two more chances to win a game.

MOTHERS OF '33 WILL BE ALL-DAY GUESTS OF G. W.

Faculty Reception to Start Off Tomorrow's Mothers' Day Program

REGISTERING AND CLASS ATTENDANCE ON PROGRAM

Tour of Guests Includes Visit to Fine Arts Exhibit After Luncheon

The George Washington University will be host tomorrow to the mothers of all freshmen women in a full day program starting at regular class time. Official permission is granted to the girls to register their mothers in Corcoran Hall 1 up to 9:30 o'clock and to be with them at luncheon there later until 1:30.

Every phase of their daughters' education in the University will be made apparent in the course of the program, supervised by Mrs. Vinnie G. Barrows, Secretary for Women's Activities.

At 9 a. m. the girls will conduct their mothers to Corcoran Hall, where they will register and be received by a hospitality committee consisting of the full-time women members of the faculty. At 9:30 the girls will go to their 9:10 classes while the mothers remain for an assembly.

Following the invocation by Provost Wilbur, Mrs. Barrows will extend a welcome to the mothers on behalf of the University. Catherine Eckhart will then welcome the group as a representative of her class of 1933. Mrs. Henry L. Morris, mother of a freshman co-ed, will respond for the mothers.

Marvin to Speak

Begun by President Marvin, a series of greetings will complete the assembly. Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., graduate and trustee of the University, will follow Dr. Marvin with remarks appropriate to the occasion. After her, Prof. Henry Grattan Doyle, Dean of the Lower Division of Columbian College, will speak. Dr. Catherine Chapman, physician for women, will end the comprehensive representative greetings from the University.

From 10:00 to 12:00 the mothers will go to school again. The girls are advised to call for their mothers promptly at 10 o'clock at Corcoran Hall and take them to their own regular classes.

Hostesses for the luncheon to be served in Corcoran Hall 1 include Mrs. Marvin, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Hodgkins, Mrs. Wilbur, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Doyle, and Mrs. Barrows.

Tour Scheduled

In the tour of buildings opportunity will be given for observing extra-curricular activities as well as those required by the administration as a part of freshmen work. The tour will start at 1:30 p. m. from the fifth range in the basement of Corcoran, where Betty Clark will direct the marksmen there for practice.

The next stop will be at the Gym at 2 o'clock, where Ruth Harriet Atwell will conduct a class of first-year girls in folk dancing and relay games for the entertainment of their mothers. At 2:30 Frances Kirkpatrick will await the women in the Home Economics Building for demonstrations of the work done in that department. The library, with Elizabeth Lathrop in charge, is the final place listed for inspection on the program. The girls should note the additional feature of Fine Arts exhibit arranged by Prof. Norris L. Crandall. This display of student endeavor in the division of Fine Arts is at the left wing of Building F and will provide material of undoubted interest.

Luncheon Tickets Issued

Tickets which freshmen girls must have in order to attend the luncheon are still available at Mrs. Barrows' office in Building M.

Faculty members of the reception committee who will meet the mothers in the mornings are: Irene Cornwell, Frances Kirkpatrick, Elizabeth Lathrop, Florence Mears, Dr. Thelma Hunt, Mrs. Mary Quick Bowman, Martha Gibbon, and Janet Jones.

MORTAR AND PESTLE GIVES FROSH SMOKER

The Mortar and Pestle Society will give a smoker on December first, for the freshmen of the Pharmacy School. The society has decided to conduct a prize essay contest, which will be open to the entire student body of the Pharmacy School. The topic will be posted on the bulletin board.

The date of the first debate which will be against Maryland University has not yet been decided. Plans are being made for the broadcasting of this debate from Baltimore, where the meet will take place.

The freshmen and upper classmen of the Pharmacy School clashed in a football game on Sunday, Nov. 10.

SUBJECT IS ANNOUNCED FOR WOMEN'S DEBATE

New Policy of Triangular Debates To Be Inaugurated By Professor Yeager

Willard Hayes Yeager, the Depew Professor of Public Speaking and new coach of debating, has announced a new policy in women's debates. To initiate this new policy, George Washington University has been instrumental in forming a triangle between G. W., Pittsburgh, and Cornell.

All three teams will debate the same question, the same night, at the same time, and will have no decisions and open forums. G. W. will be at Cornell, Cornell at Pittsburgh, and Pittsburgh at G. W. Next year the order will be reversed. This is a starting point for what Professor Yeager hopes will be, in the near future a conference debate league including ten of fifteen schools.

There is also another tentative triangle between the University of Pennsylvania, Maryland, and G. W. Other schools which the G. W. women's debate team is scheduled to meet are: Ohio Wesleyan, University of Buffalo, Syracuse, Temple, and Pennsylvania State College.

The proposition chosen for this year's women's debate work is: Resolved, That the present tendency to educate the masses should be discouraged.

Tryouts for the squad will be held on this subject on Friday, November 22, at 7:45 p. m. in Corcoran Hall, Room 29. All women students of the University are eligible. The tryout speech should be four minutes long and should develop one issue on either side of the question.

DEBATERS FAVOR TRIALS BY JURY

Columbian To Argue Whether Co-Education Is Conducive To Loose Morals

BIG DEBATE ON NOV. 22

Keough, Morgall and Wingo Named To Argue Against Filipino Club Debaters

A spirited debate on the question of substitution of a judge or bench of judges for the jury in jury trials throughout the United States occupied the Columbian Debating Society at its meeting Friday night. Final decision of the house on the merits of the question as presented was in favor of the negative, that a judge or bench of judges be not substituted for the jury.

For this Friday the program committee believes it has chosen a topic which will be of particular interest to all students in the University.

The subject for debate this week is: "Resolved, That co-education is conducive to loose morals." Norman R. Hazen and David Rapoport will uphold the affirmative, while Sol-Appl and Leo David will attempt to justify co-education in the light of observations at G. W. and other co-ed institutions.

During the short time allotted to the transaction of business the society was reminded of the debate with the Filipino Club of Washington to be held Friday, October 22. G. W.'s participating debaters will be James G. Wingo, Paul Keough, and Ralph Morgall.

New Debaters on Affirmative

The affirmative for the jury system debate was undertaken by F. W. Kilmerney and J. W. Biggers, whose first appearance before the society it was Karl Frisbie and Gilbert Rabinowitz provided the opposition for them.

Kilmerney, opening for the affirmative, stressed the point that judges are more intelligent than jurors and have training and experience in criminology. Biggers added that jury trials are slow and costly, that there are too many appeals from them, and that the jury trial is obsolete in that it is not in harmony with present-day progress.

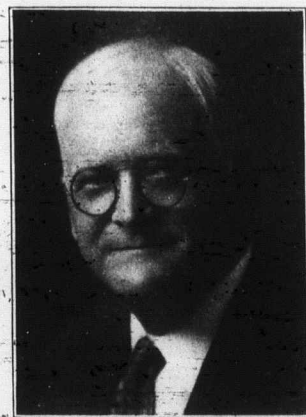

Negative Praises Jury

Rabinowitz for the negative declared that jurors are required to judge only questions of fact and are as capable of doing this as judges. Frisbie declared that since control in the United States lies in the hands of the people, justice, too, should rest with the people.

FROSH WOMEN EDUCATED IN SORORITY RUSH RULES

The first of a series of meetings for the discussion of women's fraternities at G. W. was held Tuesday, November 5. The several different groups of new girl students led by a sorority representative discussed the explanation of free association, and rush rules.

The object of the discussions was to clarify such points as the true meaning and function of Panhellenic, the purpose of free association, the significance of rush rules, and to insure the cooperation of the entering girls with the sorority girls in abiding by these rules.

DR. JOHN POLLARD, Alumnus of The George Washington University and Governor-Elect of Virginia.

VA. GOVERNOR-ELECT IS ALUMNUS OF G. W.

Dr. Pollard Attended Columbian Law School, Now George Washington Law School

Dr. John Garland Pollard, governor-elect of Virginia, received a large part of his legal training at the Columbian Law School, now the Law School of George Washington University.

Dr. Pollard recently won the Virginia gubernatorial election after one of the hardest fights in the history of the Old Dominion.

The election was notable in the fact that Dr. Pollard, the Democratic candidate, and Dr. Brown, of the Republican and Coalition ticket, were both college professors. Dr. Pollard was Professor of Government at William and Mary College.

County Fair Booths Will Be In Contest

Articles To Be Sold in Sorority Booths Announced; Dancing Scheduled

The most popular and the most attractive sorority booths will be chosen at the County Fair which is to be held Saturday night, November 16, at 8 o'clock, in Corcoran Hall under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Winifred Beall will have charge of the contest for the most popular booth and a committee of professors will choose the most attractive booth.

All sororities, with the exception of one, have selected their booths with the following results: Pi Beta Phi, punch; Chi Omega, eskimo pies; Sigma Kappa, flowers and fortune-telling; Phi Mu, hot dogs; Alpha Delta Pi, flowers and tobacco; Kappa Delta, ice cream; Delta Zeta, cigarettes; Alpha Delta Theta, cider and cakes; Phi Delta, ball throwing contest; Kappa Kappa Gamma, checking.

Registrations for entries in the pie-eating contest are being received. Harold Jenkins and Jerry Sickler have enrolled and all other entrants should give their names to Roberta Wright immediately.

A colored orchestra has been secured for dancing this year with the price set at 10 cents a dance.

NOTED SPEAKERS WILL ADDRESS LIBERAL CLUB

"A Symposium On the Southern Labor Crisis" Is Topic of Next Meeting

"A Symposium on the Southern Labor Crisis" will be the topic of the next meeting of the Liberal Club to be held Wednesday, November 13, at 8:30 o'clock in Corcoran Hall.

Among the speakers for the occasion will be Edwin L. McGrady, vice president of the American Federation of Labor; Rudolph Shoham, official representative of the International Labor Defense; and Lawrence Todd, Federal Press correspondent of international repute. Each speaker will talk for 25 minutes, allowing ample time for a general discussion.

The Liberal Club has been fortunate in obtaining these men to offer to the student body an opportunity to secure first-hand information on a current subject about which there has been much confusion and misrepresentation of fact. Furthermore through the forum, there is provided an outlet for the answering of all questions that may arise in the minds of the audience, and for a general expression of individual opinion.

Paul Linebarger, club president, will preside at the meeting.

ARCHITECTS EXHIBIT

An exhibit of work done by students in the School of Architecture of George Washington University will be held tomorrow, November 14, in the architectural rooms in Building F.

PANHEL HOLDS INTER-SORORITY CONVENTION

Mrs. Barrows and Miss Cullen Address Mass Meeting in Corcoran, November 5

Panhellenic Council held an Inter-sorority Convention Tuesday night, November 5. Members of all the sororities were entertained by Panhellenic at a buffet supper preceding the opening of the convention.

Following the supper, the convention was opened by Judith Steele, president of Panhellenic. Mrs. Barrows then addressed the convention. Following her address, Miss Cullen, president of Columbian Women, talked to the gathering urging the girls to become members of the organization of Columbian Women. The latter part of the evening was spent in discussion groups.

The topics for discussion were: Freshman Education and What It Should Include; Criticisms of Sororities and Fraternities and How to Meet Them; Discussion of Intersorority Spirit; and Discussion of the Work of the President's Council. The discussion groups were divided into two periods. At the end of the first period the groups were broken up and the girls went into another group to discuss another topic.

The purpose of this convention was to bring sorority girls closer together, to give them an opportunity to know one another better. It is the intention of Panhellenic to hold these conventions each year with the expectation that it will foster cooperation between sororities, and place sorority life at the University on a higher plane.

SOCIAL SCIENCE GROUP TO FORM

Pi Gamma Mu, Has 98 Active Chapters With Over 5,000 Members

LARGE MEMBERSHIP HERE

Prominent Men To Be Interested In Formation of Chapter At G. W.

The possibility of the establishment of a chapter of an additional honorary fraternity at The George Washington University has developed due to the interest of a number of member students who are attending the University desirous of transferring membership from other chapters to the one which they hope to organize here in Washington. Two members of the faculty, Dr. Donaldson and Prof. Sutton, are among the members of the social science fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu, whose national officers will be petitioned to enlist in the work. The several students in the University who already belong will furnish the nucleus for the local chapter. A number of prominent and influential Washingtonians are members, among whom are Dr. Royal Copeland, of New York, and Julius I. Peyser, well-known attorney, and their assistance will be sought in the movement to locate a chapter here. More than one hundred and sixty of the five thousand members of the ninety-eight chapters are at the present time residents of Washington.

Pi Gamma Mu National Social Science Honor Society, was established December 1, 1924, by the cooperation of seventeen colleges and universities in which chapters were simultaneously organized. Since its beginning the spread of the society has been phenomenal and at the present time chapters are located at the University of Pennsylvania, University of Alabama, University of Florida, University of New Mexico, University of South Dakota, College of William and Mary, the University of Wyoming, as well as at ninety-two other colleges and universities in every part of the United States.

Purpose To Aid Science

The fundamental purpose of Pi Gamma Mu is to encourage and reward the undergraduate study of social science and to awaken interest on the part of young educated men and women in the scientific attitude toward social problems. This is to be accomplished by making election to the society a high honor, by offering prizes for research, surveys and original thought, and by the publication of a national journal. This magazine, a quarterly publication known as "Social Science," appeared first in November, 1925. Its special purpose is to vitalize and deepen social interests in young college students and graduates, though it also has a popular appeal, since it aims to popularize scientific social concepts. The purpose of the fraternity is not to add appreciably to the list of so-called "student activities," which distract the student's attention from the main business of college life, but rather to reinforce and vitalize that work in so far as it relates to social studies. The wide and enthusiastic acceptance of the purpose and program of Pi Gamma (Continued on page 4)

DR. RICHARDSON'S LATEST BOOK HAS GOOD RECEPTION

"The Philosophy of Religion" Is Work of Professor of Philosophy

PROFESSOR HAS WRITTEN NUMEROUS OTHER BOOKS

George Washington Faculty Member Addresses Meetings of Many Learned Societies and Clubs

Reviews appearing in twenty or more national and international journals have been given to the most recent book, "The Philosophy of Religion," of Dr. Edward E. Richardson, Professor of Philosophy at George Washington University. The volume has been well received everywhere and has been accorded a position of outstanding prominence among the recent philosophical literature, which has appeared.

Dr. Richardson's leadership among intellectual circles of Washington as an author, lecturer, and authority in the current philosophical investigations of national scope has been recognized for several years. Both as an officer and member of the Washington professional organizations, he has been regarded as an acknowledged influence in his field of activity.

Speaks to Classical Club

Recently he has been called upon to deliver a number of addresses before societies and clubs. On October 8, Dr. Richardson read a paper entitled "Mechanism and Theology" before the Washington Philosophical Society and on November 9, he addressed the Washington Classical Club, at a meeting at the Raleigh Hotel, on the subject of "Philosophers of Rome."

Since 1914, Dr. Richardson has been head of the Department of Philosophy, and Elton Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy, at George Washington University. He received his degree in medicine from Columbia University and the degrees of Bachelor of Science, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy from George Washington University. He served a number of years as professor of anatomy here, before being called to the head of his present department.

During this time he has written a number of books among which are "Problem of the Imperfect" and "The Two Sides of Evolution," as well as numerous papers read before philosophical societies, and articles in magazines and reviews. On several occasions, he has been editor and joint editor of the Memoirs of the Society for Philosophical Inquiry, as well as having been for five years secretary of that organization and president since 1914.

Professor Was Pastor

Dr. Richardson has also occupied the position of trustee of the Baptist Bible Institute of New Orleans and was formerly pastor of the Congress Heights Church of Washington. He is affiliated with the Medical Society of the District of Columbia, and the American Association of University Professors, and is an ex-president of the Graduate Club of George Washington University. In medicine, theology, education, and philosophy, Dr. Richardson has established his reputation as writer, lecturer, and teacher.

The past summer Dr. Richardson was in New York City doing research work. On his return to the University he began the direction of his classes and seminars. Among professional circles, faculty, and students, Dr. Richardson is eminently popular and esteemed for his scholarship.

"Gyped In Egypt" Is Final Comedy Title

Troubadours' Show Will Be Given At McKinley Auditorium In December

"Gyped In Egypt" is the title of the Troubadours' production, according to a definite statement of the Board of Directors, and the show will be given at the new McKinley High School Auditorium, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, December 12, 13 and 14.

The numbers of the show have been definitely decided upon and spotted in the book. Bill Jemison's "Nile Love Song," the theme song, and Dan Beattie's "Must I Forget" are the feature numbers of the production. Many prospective hits have also been written by Jemison and Beattie, including "I Always Lose My Man," "How Do You Get That Way?", "Good-night," "I Haven't Kissed Her Yet," "Hey-hey," "Black Maria Blues," "Ten Easy Lessons," and "Face The Sun."

The cast is being coached by Dennis Connell, and Julia Denning is the dancing director.

HOME EC. CLUB MEETS

A meeting of the Home Economics Club will be held on Friday, November 22, in Building C, at 7:30. Election of officers and a lecture by Dr. Lillian Storms, president of the District Home Economics Club, will be in order.

WASHINGTON, D. C. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1929

PHI DELTA GAMMA

The full significance of the work of Phi Delta Gamma in the field of forensics at the University can only be realized when their record in the past and their work in the present is reviewed.

For a great number of years this small professional honorary fraternity has labored without pausing, labored without the accustomed bally-hoo with which a zealous press agent surrounds his organization, and with it all it has achieved more in a real constructive way than any other group, regardless of size, on the George Washington University campus.

The first big event in the history of the fraternity was the presentation of a silver loving cup to the winner in the annual play contest during the years from 1924 to 1927. This little award, while small in itself, indeed, was the necessary stimulus for noteworthy effort in the field of dramatics; efforts which were renewed each year with added force and resolution. The four clubs which then existed vied with each other for the coveted prize and it was this spirit which led to the organization of dramatics at the University on a sound basis which enabled the activity to become the most respected and foremost of the University. Today the Troubadours, an outgrowth of this competition and a child of Phi Delta Gamma members, ranks with the country's best. All this from a little start!

Now Phi Delta Gamma is endeavoring to bring to the front talent in public speaking among the freshmen. The first serious attempt in this direction was made last year with the First Freshman Oratorical Contest which was the most successful event of its kind in recent years at George Washington University. This year the fraternity is again sponsoring a similar contest, which will take place within a few weeks. The results of such an effort can not be measured in exact degrees, but the final results must be great.

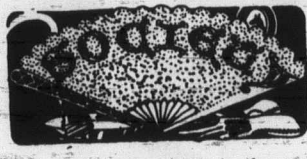

The Freshman Oratorical Contest is of particular value in that it provides an opportunity to first-year students at a time when the students are somewhat timid in participating in activities; a time when ability should be discovered and developed if it is not to be lost in the maze of student affairs of lesser importance.

This small fraternity is a sterling example of what can be accomplished in a real constructive way in student affairs; an accomplishment which at this particular time is of special importance in view of the rapidly developing Department of Public Speaking. If each small group of men or women, organized for some specific purpose and dedicated to some one ideal, would accomplish as much as Phi Delta Gamma has accomplished in its own way, the existence of such organizations would be more than justified.

MAGAZINE OR NEWSPAPER?

Friendly as well as hostile critics of The Hatchet complain of the lack of space in its columns devoted to pure literary efforts. The Hatchet, in turn, deprecates the lack of a medium for such expression on the part of the student body. With an exceedingly limited amount of funds on which to run this publication, The Hatchet finds it extremely difficult to cover the essential news of the University, and can find no space in its crowded columns for effort of a literary nature. A number of excellent literary contributions have been sent to The Hatchet this year, but because of the press of news interests they have not and can not be published.

Friendly as well as hostile critics have also offered their suggestions with respect to the make-up, content, and news of The Hatchet. For all of this we are duly thankful. Such criticism not only gives vent to the outraged feelings of the critic, but also enables the editors to feel the pulse of the student body; through such comments and suggestions alone can the quality of the paper be brought to such a level as to please and satisfy the greatest number of students. And that is the sole object of a newspaper's existence.

WE don't know which is the most interesting—the Chi Omega house-warming open to the entire school (with the exception of freshmen girls) next Sunday, or the annual pledge prom—open only to the Greek freshmen with their dates, on Friday night at the Acacia House. At any rate, we expect to see a lot more of G. W.'s social elite crowded into 2020 G Street on Sunday than we can hope to see up on Massachusetts Avenue next Friday night unless some of the older Greek brothers on the campus decide to borrow some of their goats' buttons for the evening. But with another Dollar Dance scheduled for Friday night, the rest of the school may find an evening's entertainment in Corcoran Hall 1.

Alpha Delta Pi announces the pledging of Naomi Newton and Dolly Tschiffely on Friday, November 8.

Scarb is entertaining the architectural students at a banquet on November 16.

Florence Wallace entertained the members of Beta Chapter, Phi Delta Gamma Graduate Sorority, at a tea at her home on Randolph Place last Sunday.

The History Club was delightfully entertained by Julia Escher at a picnic at her country home in Virginia, on October 27.

Kappa Alpha will inaugurate the social season in its new house on R Street with a dance to be held on Saturday night. Happy Walker's Orchestra will furnish the music for the brothers and their invited guests.

Sigma Mu Sigma held a smoker last Saturday night, at its house on Massachusetts Avenue. J. R. Ralder, of the Zeta Chapter of Purdue University, was entertained as a special guest.

Pi Beta Phi announces the initiation of Mary Virginia Smith, which was held on Monday night, at the home of Lois Thompson, province president.

Eta Chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa of the University of Maryland gave a dance last evening at the Hamilton Hotel.

The local chapter of Phi Delta celebrated the tenth anniversary of Founder's Day on October 25, with a banquet at the Lee House.

Chi Omega will entertain the faculty and students of the University at a housewarming tea on Sunday, November 17, in their new rooms, 2020 G Street N. W.

Bubber Baty entertained a party at the Army and Navy Country Club in honor of Kitty Slaughter and Dr. Boaz, U. S. N., whose marriage is to take place Saturday, November 16.

Phi Mu entertained Professor and Mrs. Willard at dinner in the rooms Monday night, November 11. Mrs. Willard is a Phi Mu from the University of Washington and was one of the organizers of that chapter.

Alpha Delta Theta gave a tea Sunday afternoon, November 10, in honor of Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., their new patroness.

Chi Omega will entertain at dinner Saturday, November 16, in honor of the chapter inspector, Miss Edna Strong.

A number of the students from George Washington, who attended the Navy-Georgetown game at Annapolis were Rosalie Reed, Ruth McArthur, Gerry Free, Peggy Maize, Marcelle Le Manager, Peggy and Betty Rees, Barbara Miller, Sally Ferguson, Margaret Ferguson, Louise Bruce, Helen Bartlett, Marion Cox, and Polly Pollard.

Theta-Delta Chi announces the formal initiation of Frank Westbrook on Sunday, November 10.

Eleanor Branson and Natalie Norwood were entertained at supper Monday night by Sigma Kappa.

Sigma Nu Memorial Service was held Sunday evening, November 10, at a Washington church. Local members and many others attended. Each member wore a white carnation, symbolic of the occasion.

Claudia Sutton attended the game and hop at the Naval Academy last week-end, November 9. Barbara Miller, and Billie Vincel also journeyed to Annapolis as guests of the Midshipmen.

Tacks Devoe visited in Washington over the week-end and has now returned to Trenton, New Jersey.

Kappa Alpha has moved to its new house at 1901 R Street N. W.

Dolly Tschiffely and Marion Rittenour attended the dances at Gettysburg last week-end.

Sigma Phi Epsilon entertained their alumni and Professors Van Vleck and Cruikshanks at a smoker Saturday night, November 9. The "goats" put on their first show for the guests. The fraternity gave their first formal tea Sunday afternoon, November 10, at the house.

Jane Wilson entertained some friends at a dinner Wednesday night, after which the guests were surprised with a box party at Poll's followed by a supper at the Club Chanticleer.

Phi Delta announces the formal initiation of Dorothy Hilder.

Katherine MacDonald spent the week-end in Norfolk.

The alumnae chapter of Delta-Zeta held a benefit bridge on Thursday evening, November 7.

Alpha Delta Theta gave a masque dance at the Bannockburn Country Club last Friday. The guest of honor was the Crown Prince of Siam.

MED-ECHOES

Phi Chapter of Phi Chi, national medical fraternity, will hold an informal reception at the Chapter House at 1735 N Street, on Friday, in honor of T. B. Pearson, secretary of the grand chapter. A large gathering of his friends and associates is expected to be on hand.

Members of the Senior Class are beginning to receive advertisements and samples from various drug houses addressed to "Dr." So-and-so. In light of previous years' happenings this shows excessive hypermetopia on the part of said concerns—or is it myopia?

The Medical School was represented at a dance given by the internes at Gallinger last Saturday night by a scattering of adventurous males. As one of "our dancing doctors" put it, "The dances aren't so hot, but oh those nurses!"

The Freshmen who have recently finished the study of the under surface of the skull are now seen and heard running about the halls gnashing their teeth and yelling, "Ye gods and little fissures!"

The Medical School "Pill Rollers" are still looking for engagements. Any bowling team in the University anxious to scrap, is invited to communicate with this outfit.

Arthur Chiff, after witnessing four autopsies last week, went to church Sunday only to hear a sermon titled, "The Weakness of The Flesh."

Dr. Taylor Lectures On Geometry Systems

Mathematics Professor at G. W. Was Among First Investigators of New Non-Euclidean Space

The Mathematics Club heard Dr. J. H. Taylor lecture on "A Generalization of Riemannian Geometry," at its fortnightly meeting on November 4. Dr. Taylor is the new professor and executive officer of the Mathematics Department.

While in the ordinary Euclidean geometry, the formula for the length of a curve involves only the direction of its tangents, Dr. Taylor showed that in Riemannian geometry the length of a curve is a function of position as well. Dr. Taylor then introduced to the club a still more twisted variety of geometry, which he has named "Finsler" geometry after one of its first investigators. Dr. Taylor is giving a course in Tensor Analysis in which such geometries and their application to Relativity Theory are considered. He is the author of some of the earliest publications on this subject.

HOME ECONOMICS CLASS GIVES TYPICAL LUNCHEON

A luncheon was given by the Food Problem of the Household class in Home Economics Friday, November 8, in the dining room of the department. The menu was planned for a typical American family of six. The guests included: Dean W. C. Ruediger, Mrs. Vinnie Barrows, Mrs. M. Lockwood, Alice Ernest, and Jerry Sickler.

Members of the class have estimated the caloric requirements for each member of the average family and the cost per day, for each serving.

REMAINING BRIDGE GAMES TO BE PLAYED THIS WEEK

The first phase of the bridge tournament was played last week; the remaining games are to be played this week. The victors will be presented with a silver cup given each year at the Panhellenic prom; Chi Omega is now holder of the cup.

Alpha Delta Phi has won games played with Phi Phi and Sigma Kappa. Alpha Delta Theta won over Kappa Gamma and Phi Mu; and Chi Omega won games played with Sigma Kappa and Zeta Tau Alpha.

LONG BUTTON GLOVES ARE THE LATEST STYLE

"The Spirit of the Gay Nineties," writes the fashion editor of Styles for Sorority Row in the December College Humor, "has waved her magic wand over Paris. And Paris is now designing for the American girl twelve, fourteen or twenty button gloves should be worn with the new evening gowns. Long black suede gloves are correct for the afternoon or dinner frock."

RAGATZ URGES PHILATELY

Dr. Lowell J. Ragatz, professor of history at George Washington, addressed the stamp club of Central High School last Friday afternoon on the subject, "What One Can Learn from Postage Stamps."

The real interest in stamp-collecting, according to Dr. Ragatz, comes from the knowledge gained from the stamps of geography, political history, social history, economic history, bird and animal life, and scenery of the various countries.

Professor Ragatz is himself a philatelist and has been for 20 years. He has a collection of fourteen albums with some 60,000 stamps. He is an officer of two American stamp clubs and has contributed frequently to the "Weekly Stamp News," "The Philatelist Journal," and "The Stamp Collector's Monthly."

FORENSIC FRAT HONORS MRS. CHAUNCEY DEPEW

Delta Sigma Rho To Give Dinner On Friday For Senator's Widow and Yeager

On Friday, November 15th, at 7.30 o'clock, at the Cosmos Club, The George Washington University Chapter of Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary forensic society, will entertain at dinner in honor of Mrs. Chauncey Depew and Mr. W. Hayes Yeager, the first incumbent of the chair in public speaking, which Mrs. Depew endowed in memory of Senator Depew, of New York.

The event promises to be most interesting. The speakers include President Marvin, Professor Yeager, Mr. Gilbert L. Hall, who for the past ten years has been active in the direction and management of debating, and Mr. Stanley B. Houck, national president of the society, who journeys from Minneapolis, Minn., for the occasion.

Appropriate dramatic readings will be rendered by Miss Hester Walker Beall, a graduate of the Law School, who has a studio of the spoken word in this city and who is on the faculty of public speaking at the University of Maryland. The president of the chapter, Harryman Dorsey, three times representative of the University in the National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest, will preside.

Because of the widespread interest in the affair, Delta Sigma Rho has opened the affair to the public. Today is the last day for reservations, which are being made at the office of the Secretary of the Law School and with Miss Helen Prentiss, 3447 Holmead Place. Checks should be payable to the latter as secretary. Plates are $2.25 each.

CHICAGO (IP).—Undergraduate college students with a literary turn of mind have an opportunity to contest for prizes totalling $1,500, offered by Julius Rosenwald, Chicago philanthropist, for the best essays on "The Future of American Judaism." Judges in the contest will be Dr. Lee K. Frankel, Ephraim M. Friedman and Judge Irving Lehman, of New York; Professor Nathan Isaacs, of Harvard University, and Judge Horace Stern, of Philadelphia.

VARSITY BEATEN AS ST. JOSEPH'S TAKES 12-7 GAME

Recovered Fumble By Young In Fourth Quarter Averts
Colonial Shut-out.

VICTORY SCORE EARLY
IN RINGING UP 12-7 WIN

McGrew's Kicking Defends Hatchet-
ite Goal; Hoffman, Berkowitz,
Adams Outstanding

In the most interesting game played this season, the Colonial eleven went down to defeat before the St. Joseph's team of Philadelphia, Pa., by a score of 12-7 last Saturday.

Several thousand fans found their way to the Central High School Stadium in the hope of seeing their team register its first win of the year.
The ideal weather and the tightness of the game kept up their interest throughout.

Starting slowly, the Hatchettes improved as the game wore on, and they likely would have fared even better except for an unfortunate break in the third quarter.

G. W. Scores

The George Washington gridmen
scored their lone touchdown mid-way
in the final session, and this was made possible by virtue of a recovered fumble.
Young fell upon the loose ball on his opponents 15-yard marker. Berkowitz made 7 yards off-tackle and then Hoffman made it first down on the 4-yard line after three center rushes. Berkowitz then went off tackle and Hoffman again hit the center of the line to place the piskly on the 1-yard line. On the next play Berkowitz went off tackle for the score. Hoffman place kicked the extra point.

The first score of the game came after about five minutes of play in the first period. Coach Emid Thomas' men took the ball on their own 32-yard line
and on the first play Capt. Tony Grieco found a hole and went through his right tackle for a 35-yard gain. On the next play Walker passed over the line of scrimmage to Morris, who covered the remaining distance to the goal to kick up the first score of the game. The try for extra point was blocked.

Ball Changes Hands

Scott then kicked off to Berkowitz,
who returned the ball 20 yards to the 40-yard line. Coach Pixlee's men then made a first down, added by an off-side penalty. An attempted pass was intercepted by Grieco, who was downed on G. W.'s 40-yard line. Grieco and Walker then hit the line for a first down and a pass Walker to Morris added another and placed the ball on the home team's 13-yard marker as the quarter ended.

As the second period got under way,
the Colonial line held and G. W. took the ball. McGrew then punted out of danger. The rest of the second quarter the ball exchanged hands continually and the play was for the most part in the Hatchettes' territory.

G. W. received the kick-off and after failing to gain McGrew punted. The Hawks found no holes in the Colonial line so were forced to kick. McGrew than got off a beautiful punt from his own 39-yard line, that was downed by a Colonial player on the St. Joe 2-yard line. Cinkutis then punted from behind his own goal line to the 45-yard line, where Gates fumbled and Doherty recovered for the Philadelphia.

Young Recovers Fumble

This recovered fumble gave the visitors new life and they started a drive
that was terminated when Hartigan plunged over for a touchdown. This drive was marked by the line smashing of Walker and Hartigan, and a pass from Walker to Barrow, which was good for 25 yards. Walker's try for the extra point was low. The quarter ended shortly afterwards.

The final session saw G. W. score
her lone counter after Young had recovered a fumble and Hoffman and Berkowitz hit the line repeatedly for gains with the latter registering the score. After this score, Captain Grico returned to the visitor's lineup and started a drive toward the G. W. goal
as the game ended.

McGrew's great kicking played a prominent part in keeping the Hawks away from the Hatchettes' goal, while McQueen played an exceptionally good game at tackle.

Hoffman, Berkowitz Star

Blackie Hoffman and Sammy Berkowitz were the most outstanding offensive players, while Lefty Adams
showed adeptness at forward passing.
Captain Grieco, Walker, and Hartigan were the most brilliant players of the visiting eleven.

The summary:

BANQUET TO BE HELD FOR ALL FALL SPORTS

The Executive Board of the W. A. A. has planned to hold three banquets during the coming year, one each for fall, winter and spring sports.
The fall sports banquet will be held at 7:30 on Tuesday, December 3, at the Lee House. All members of the W. A. A. are invited and especially the members of the varsity and inter-
mural teams of the fall sports.
There will be speeches by the heads of the sports as well as by the Physical Education Department, and awards will be given.

CO-EDS TO HOLD ATHLETIC RALLY

Event in Gym on Monday To Begin Athletic Competition Week

BURNHAM IS CHAIRMAN

Contests in Archery, Hockey, and Soccer to Follow Rally Monday, November 18

All co-eds of the University are invited to participate in the huge Athletic Rally which will be staged in the gym at 1 o'clock on Monday, November 18, and officially marks the beginning of Athletic Competition Week.

Features of the program will include
such entertainment as stunts, cheers,
and songs. A committee on arrangements has been appointed with Midge
Burnham as chairman.

Immediately after the rally, the participants will proceed to the Ellipse
where contests in archery, hockey, and soccer will be held. There will be cars to take pointers to the games after the rally.

Four games have been arranged for Monday. These will include the freshman-sophomore hockey game, the junior-senior hockey game, a freshman-sophomore soccer contest, and a freshman-sophomore archery competition.
Members of the faculty are especially invited to come and witness both the rally and the contests at the Ellipse.

On Tuesday, November 19, at 1:30,
two matches will be played in hockey
and one in archery. The hockey contests are between the freshmen and the sophomores, and between the sophomores and the juniors. Juniors will oppose the freshmen in the archery
contest of the day.

The following girls are on the hockey squads which will represent their classes in the Class Hockey Tournament: Senior squad—Manager, Betty Zimmerman; Irey, Steele, Chind-blom, Cuvillier, Reed, Turnbull, and Kyle. Junior squad—Manager, Martha Benenson; Folsom, Sproul, Wood,
Lindsey, Martin, Morrow, and Orea.
Sophomore squad—Manager, Grace
White; Lum, Aal, Harfington, Weaver,
Manning, McGregor, Ziegler, Evans,
Von Lewinski, Detweiler, Wright,
Munsey, Breckinridge, and Dew. Freshman squad—Manager, Judith Fish-
burn; Chafee, Jones, Haley, Leon, Brown, Turnbull, Wasserman, Hefle-
bower, Watkins, Mliott, Leibler, Chambers, and Phillips.

THREE ADDED TO CO-ED VARSITY RIFLE SQUAD

Edna Collins, Emera Johnson, and
Catherine Weller Selected
From 14 Applicants

Edna Collins, Emera Johnson, and Catherine Weller have been selected as members of the varsity rifle squad
from the 14 girls who have been tried out.

The group which has received special coaching includes Mary Sourwine, Catherine Tedde, Virginia Whitney,
Grace White, Nanette Dembitz, Katherine Cutler, Helen Chafee, Edna Collins, Dorothy Wilson, Emera Johnson and Catherine Weller. These girls show promise as future varsity members. Not all of the beginners have been tried out as yet, but everyone will be given her chance at the one open berth left on the varsity squad.

Arline Spencer, manager of varsity rifle, has announced that an invitation
has been received from Drexel Institute in Philadelphia for a triangular match between Drexel, U. of Penn. and G. W. on March 15. The trip to Philadelphia will resume operations with an opponent with whom the Buff and Blue team has looked forward to matching skill in previous years. The annual match with Drexel was foregone last season because of their building plans.

A telegraphic match with the U. of Washington has been definitely scheduled for March 8. This team is the West Coast champion and formerly held the national championship, which title G. W. has successfully defended
for the last three years.

FROSH ENGAGE MIDDIES

Following their victory over Emerson, the George Washington freshman football team will journey to Annapolis
to engage the Naval Academy "B" squad this Saturday. As this is the hardest game on the frosh schedule,
much interest is being evinced and a large part of the student body plans
to make the trip.

The yearling outfit has been very fortunate throughout this season. They have sustained no serious injuries, and every member is in top-notch condition. This may be attributed in part to the excellent morale of the team,
which has meticulously adhered to the training rules laid down by the coaching staff.

This contest is to be played in the nature of a curtain-raiser to the Naval Academy-Wake Forest game, and therefore will start early in the afternoon.

SEMI-FINALS REACHED IN GIRLS' FALL TENNIS

Detweiler To Play Winner of Fishburn-Dunham Match For Title

The Women's Fall Tennis Tournament has advanced successfully to the semi-finals. The finals will be played this week with Detweiler facing either Fishburn or Dunham across the net
in a battle for first place.

There were 35 entrants of whom
many have proved themselves excellent players. The preliminaries, played off by October 16, gave the following results: Seigrist defeated Wesude 6-4; 6-4; Palmer defaulted to Breckenridge;
Clarke defeated White 3-6, 6-0, 12-10.
In the first round of the tournament
Burnham defaulted to Seigrist; Fishburn defaulted to Turnbull; Parsons defeated Aal 3-6, 6-2, 7-5; Lum defeated Breckenridge 6-3, 6-3; Blackstone defeated Esch; Dunham defeated Miles
6-0, 6-1; Butler defeated Heflebower
6-0, 6-0; Mays defeated Clarke 6-3, 6-3;
Irey defeated Wright 6-3, 6-1; Detweiler defeated Hudson 6-1, 6-1; McGregor defeated Benenson 6-2, 6-2; Kahn defaulted to Kyle; Sproul defeated Kise
6-2, 6-1; Chafee defeated Wilson; Watkins, defeated Shull 7-5, 6-2.

In the second round, Seigrist defaulted to Fishburn; Turnbull defeated Parsons 6-1, 7-5; Lum defeated Blackstone; Dunham defeated Butler 6-1, 7-5; Irey defaulted to Mays; Detweiler defeated McGregor 6-0, 6-2; Sproul defeated Kyle 6-0, 6-3; Chafee defeated
Watkins 6-2, 6-1.

Round three: Fishburn defeated
Turnbull 7-5, 2-6, 6-2; Dunham defeated Lum 6-1, 6-2; Detweiler defeated
Mays 6-1, 6-0; Sproul defeated Chafee
6-1, 3-6, 6-4.

From the third round, Fishburn,
Dunham, Detweiler and Sproul entered the semi-finals, where Detweiler defeated Sproul 6-2, 5-7, 6-0. Fishburn
and Dunham have not yet played.

Turnbull, Sproul, and Butler were members of last year's varsity with Turnbull as number one player. In the fall tennis tournament of 1928, Detweiler won the individual championship but later became ineligible for varsity. The year before she played number one at Central High.

Sproul has been on varsity for two years making a good showing both seasons. Both Fishburn and Dunham are freshmen and have been reported to be excellent players. They will have good prospects of making varsity
this year and upholding the reputation of the George Washington team, which has been beaten but once in the six years that it has existed as a sport at G. W.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE SOCCER GAME PLANNED

Co-Ed Teams Have Elimination
Schedule Under Way

The freshman-sophomore soccer game on Monday, November 18 will be preceded by a series of intra-mural
games which will begin November 11.
Owing to the mud on the field the teams have been named Mud Turtles,
Puddle Jumpers, Wild Cats, and Pill
Pushers.

Captains have been elected as follows: Mud Turtles, Jane Hill; Puddle
Jumpers, Irma Johnson; Wild Cats,
Edith Grover; Pill Pushers, Edith Brookhart.

The schedule is as follows:
November 11—Mud Turtles vs. Puddle Jumpers.
November 12—Wild Cats vs. Pill
Pushers.
November 15—Winners of first two games.

RABBI ISRAEL ADDRESSES FIRST MENORAH MEETING

Rabbi Edward Israel of Baltimore, spoke on "Mid-Channel," the latest book by Ludwig Lewisohn, former professor at Ohio State University, at the first meeting of the Menorah Society, held Thursday, November 7.
Professor Lewisohn was formerly
on the editorial staff of the Nation,
and is author of "The Island Within,"
and "Upstream."

A discussion followed Rabbi Israel's address, and printed bulletins containing statements of the purpose of the Menorah Society were distributed.
The next meeting will be held Thursday, November 21, in Stockton Hall.

NOTRE DAME COACH BEGAN IN CHICAGO P. O.

"Knute Rockne's first job was in the Chicago Post-Office at the handsome salary of five bucks per week,"
says Jimmy Corcoran in the December issue of College Humor. "I am told by old-time employees of the
P. O. that Rock could toss a mail sack farther and faster than anyone in the place. One day he asked for a raise. They gave him an extra fifty cents per week, and that's one reason why Knute Rockne went to Notre Dame. The other was that he could sprint and pole vault. He did not go to Notre Dame as a football player, and I will be willing to bet my straw skimmer on that. I have it from one of King Knute's
old associates, who will go nameless
here (in order to save his hide),
that Rock arrived at the South Bend
station with a derby hat, a sweater
with a choker collar, a pair of trousers that had given good mileage,
and a track suit.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (I.P.).—
Chances of a game yet this year between Army and Navy if differences between the two can be ironed out,
have faded with the announcement
following a conference here that Army's schedule for the rest of the year is too full. Army will play
a post-season game December 28,
at Stanford, California.

SPROUL GIVES SCHEDULE

The schedule for the girls' basketball squad has been announced this week by Mary Sproul, manager. Practices will not begin until sometime in December, and the varsity games will be preceded by a series
of interclass matches.

The games begin on February 15,
with a practice game at Hood College. On February 22 the team will take a trip to Williamsburg to play
William and Mary. The George Washington squad will play hostess
to Drexel on March 1, and to Swarthmore on March 7.

JUNIATA IS MET THIS SATURDAY

Colonial Line Strengthened By Addition of New Candidates For Team

CLAPPER OFF SICK LIST

Pennsylvanians to Present Fast Running Game, Diversified by Aerial Attack

After dropping last week's game
to St. Joseph by one lone touchdown, the Colonial Varsity football squad, swelled by recent additions,
is looking forward to its first bid
for victory next Saturday against Juniata, to be followed by a stiff battle on Thanksgiving Day.

With fresh material out, Coach
Connaughton hopes to bolster up
the forward wall and present a more unbroken front. Since most of the ground gained by St. Joseph was through the tackles, this particular position will receive special attention this week. As Clapper will be back in the line-up, the team should show its full strength and win its first victory this Saturday at the Emory-Wilson stadium. Francis,
the regular end who was injured in the C. N. Y. game, is expected to be off the hospital list by Thanksgiving at the latest and possibly by this game.

Juniata is credited with a fast
fighting combination which has won most of its games this season. A fast, smashing attack, broken up by snap passes forms their offense and has brought them their victories.

The two teams are about evenly matched and a good game is anticipated.

The G. W. Line-up:
McGrew, right end; Francis, or Young, left end; West or Clapper,
right tackle; McQueen, left tackle;
Boyle, right guard; Frazier, left guard; Clements, center; Berkowitz, quarterback; Hoffman, fullback; Gates,
right halfback; Adams, left halfback.

FARRINGTON WILL GIVE SWIMMING INSTRUCTION

Advanced and Beginning Swimmers
Will Train at New Ambassador Hotel

Swimming classes for both non-swimmers and those who wish advanced training are being started by Coach Farrington in the Ambassador Hotel pool. From the advanced swimming class a team will be chosen to represent George Washington in intercollegiate meets.

All who could not pass the 50-yard
swimming test, required of all freshmen and sophomores, will have instruction two hours a week in the fulfillment of swimming. These classes will be Monday and Wednesday, 9:00
to 11:00, and Tuesday and Thursday
from 10:00 to 11:00.

The more advanced swimmers, from whom the team will be chosen will have a class Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00 to 10:00. In case of conflicts there will be a meeting from 8:00 to 9:00 on the same day. Instruction will be given in speed swimming, fancy diving, and all forms of advanced water sports.

Coach Farrington will organize a team. An attractive schedule of about five home and outside meets will be arranged. Two of the best local fancy divers have agreed to give an exhibition in this line. Expert instruction will be given to all who turn out.

The Ambassador Hotel pool, which the University is using, is the newest in the city. No irritating chemicals are used, but the water is purified by violet rays. No fee is charged for the swimming classes.

SWIMMING OPENS DEC. 2

Women's swimming at George Washington University will open Monday, December 2 at the Y. W. C. A. pool.
Examinations must be taken by this time.

Tests will be given at the pool this week and those Sophomores who pass
the requirements will not have to report for swimming as their winter sport. The requirements consist of a straight standing dive and swimming
the length of the pool twice.

Women who have not had their physical exam by Dr. Chapman must have it this week at the Y, paying a fee of 50 cents. Appointments must be made in advance.

Students, Attention!

For self-supporting students desiring fascinating, remunerative work either temporary or permanent, may I suggest that many students of both sexes have earned scholarships and cash sufficient to defray all college expenses, representing national magazine publishers. If interested, write or wire for details—M. A. Steele,

FRESHMAN TEAM DOWNS EMERSON

George Washington Frosh Score
169 Points Total Against Opponents' 26

FINAL COUNT IS 23-0

Buff and Blue Players Make Two Touchdowns in Final Quarter

When the George Washington
freshman football team defeated the highly praised Emerson Institute with a 23-0 score last Friday at the Clark Griffith Stadium, it ran its string of victories up to four, with a single loss early in the season.
The frosh have scored a total of 169
points against their opponents' total of 26.

Although Emerson was slightly outplayed during the first period, it seemed that a close battle would be waged. The Buff and Blue were well within the Emerson territory,
but lacked that needed punch to score. As the quarter ended, no score was in view.

During the early part of the second quarter, the scoreless battle
continued, until Carlin punted to Trilling (who was smothered in his tracks) just over the Emerson goal line. The resulting safety made the score 2-0. The Emerson cohorts chose to kick off to G. W. after this score, rather than put the ball in play on their own twenty-yard line.
Later in this same quarter the Colonial offense went into action. After gains through the line, a forty-yard pass, Wells to Carter, brought the first touchdown. Krimelmyer's try for the extra point failed. At the half the score was 8-0.

Colonials Score Again

After the half, the Colonial superiority was quickly demonstrated.
The Emerson defense was handily stopped, and the Buff and Blue began to make consistent gains. At this point, a second safety was made,
when on a poor pass from center,
Kilroy was tackled behind his own goal. During this period, the rough playing that has been going on throughout the game flared into open fighting, and for a moment it appeared that the game might have to be stopped when spectators from both stands swarmed down onto the field. Order was quickly restored by the coolness of the officials, and play was resumed. At the end of the third quarter, the score was 10-0.

In the last quarter the aerial defense of Emerson weakened and two touchdowns were the result. The first came when Wells passed to Carter after the ball had been forced by straight football to Emerson's ten-yard line. Krimelmyer's kick again failed. The last score was made in the closing minutes of play
when Wells again passed to Carter.
Wells' placement made the final score
23-0.

The box score:

G. W. (23)	Emerson (0)
Sturdevant	L. E. Buscher
O'Brien	L. T. Sutton
Atkins	E. G. Shugrue
Grandall	C. Simoneton
Rakranoff	R. G. Albert
Galloway	R. T. West

INTERFRAT PLEDGE DANCE IS SCHEDULED FOR NOV. 5

The third annual Interfraternity Pledge Dance will be given at the Acquia House November 15, according to information given out by the Pledge Council.

All arrangements have been made by the Dance Committee, appointed at the last meeting of the Council, which consists of McCoy, T. U. O., chairman;

PHI DELTA GAMMA IS OFFERING CUP

Two Gold Medals Are Also Displayed at Quigley's Drugstore

ORATIONS NOW COMING IN

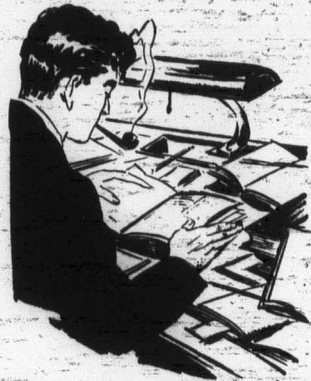

Competition For Silver Cup and Medals Is Open to All Freshmen

Friday, December 6, has been set as the date for the annual Freshmen Oratorical contest, sponsored by Phi Delta Gamma, professional forensic fraternity. The number of entries has been increasing steadily and the response thus far indicates that the contest this year will be more successful than any previous one. The silver loving cup and two gold medals, which will be awarded the winners, are on display in Quigley's Drug Store.

A typewritten copy of all orations must be submitted to the Registrar at least two weeks in advance of the contest date. Ten minutes will be given to each of the contestants for the presentation of his or her oration. The orations will be judged on the basis of three equal ratings, one each upon content, delivery, and stage presence. There is still time for those who wish to enter the contest to do so.

The judges of the contest will be the Registrar, Professor Sutton, the executive officer of the English Department, Dr. Croissant, and the professor of public speaking, Professor Yeager.

From all the manuscripts submitted, a number will be designated to be presented orally in the final competition. It is anticipated by the executive committee of Phi Delta Gamma that an elimination meet may be necessary before the candidates for the final contest can be determined.

Pipes save no midnight oil

IF PIPES made the man, anybody at all could rise in the world just by smoking a few pounds of Edgeworth. But pipes do not make the man.

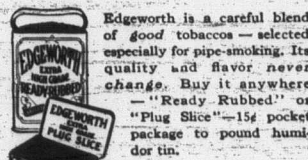

Men make the pipe—most men do. Somewhat depends on the individual, more on the pipe, and the tobacco is most important of all. Things must be congenial.

Edgeworth is a congenial tobacco, cool, slow-burning, fully flavored. Edgeworth has poise, kindly good nature, real tobacco personality—Edgeworth welcomes new friends. Many a good man has been pledged to pipes by Edgeworth alone.

Like to meet Edgeworth? Just ask with the coupon—and the postman will bring your first few pipefuls of the genuine, three years seasoned if it's a day. Our treat, if you please. Others have found Edgeworth and quit their discontent.

So may it be with you!

EDGEWORTH

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va. I'll try your Edgeworth. And I'll try it in a good pipe.

Now let the Edgeworth come!

Ghost Contributors Assemble Tomorrow

Students Interested in Either Writing or Art Work Are Invited to Meeting

A meeting of all students interested in contributing to the Ghost, George Washington University's humorous publication, is to be held in Room 17, of Corcoran Hall, tomorrow night, November 14, at 7.30 o'clock.

Those desiring to either write or draw for the Ghost, the first issue of which is expected to be published within the near future, are urged to be present. Plans for the organization of the publication's sub-editorial and art staffs will also be drawn up at this time.

CHERRY TREE OBTAINS PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO

Three Large Rooms Near G. W. To Be Used For Annual Pictures; Schedule To Be Announced

Radical improvements in the handling of the photographic work for the 1930 Cherry Tree are promised with the establishment of a private, school studio on the third floor of 712 20th Street. Three large rooms, one to be used as the studio and the other two as dressing rooms, have been secured.

Casson Studio, a firm specializing in college annuals, will do the photography and as a feature will credit the $2.00 sitting fee as a deposit on any order that might be made. This firm has just completed a set of pictures for Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Pictures will be taken during the day and evening according to a schedule which will be announced in the Hatchet each week.

The pictures of the seniors will be taken in informal dress while those of the fraternities and sororities will be formal.

As in the past the charge for individual sittings will be $2 if taken before the first of January, and $2.50 thereafter.

Special arrangements and appointments will be made so that organizations and groups may have all their sittings made on one occasion and at a time convenient to them.

HISTORY CLUB TO MEET

The History Club of The George Washington University has an important meeting planned for Tuesday evening, November 19, at 8:15, in Corcoran Hall 27.

Election of officers for the current school year will open the evening's program. Then the club and visitors will be entertained with a lecture by Miss Elsie Green, a local teacher who has done much traveling and study in Europe. Miss Green recently returned from a tour of Europe, in which she particularly studied Italy. Though her subject has not been officially announced, her talk probably will be on the many historical spots of Italy and other parts of Europe which she visited this past summer. During her travels abroad, she made a very interesting collection of pictures and select lantern slides taken from her collection will be used to illustrate the lecture.

DR. MOSS MAKES REPORT OF TESTS

Professor Investigates Problem of Selecting Men For Medical School

TEST ADDS EFFICIENCY

High Score Group Has High Grade; Low-Test Score, Low Grades

Dr. Moss, head of the Psychology Department of George Washington, at the annual meeting of the Association of American Medical Colleges gave a report of his investigations in regard to the problem of selecting men for admission into the medical schools of the association.

His investigations cover research work in twenty-two colleges, including George Washington. Two thousand tests have been given to medical or pre-medical students, and approximately one thousand of these have been given to students on whom grades for the first year of medicine were available. Starting results are shown in the comparative relationship of pre-medical grades, entrance units, and aptitude scores to the general grades through the whole of the medical work.

Professor Moss states that this aptitude test will increase the relative efficiency of selecting high students and eliminating failures 15 per cent, while combining test and pre-medical grades as a basis for admission would increase the efficiency 26 per cent. This increase would show an elimination of 84 per cent of the failures, while the highest of the other methods eliminates only 75 per cent of failures. The test scores and the freshman medical grades of the students show unusually high correlations, the average being .59, while some went as high as .72.

Upper 10 Per Cent Have 80-89

Studying the freshman medical grades received by various test score groups, it is found that the high test score groups have outstandingly high grades and low test score groups have outstandingly low grades. The distribution of grades for the upper ten per cent in test scores and the lower ten per cent may be summarized as follows: Upper 10 per cent of scores have general average of 80-89 grades with no grades below 75, and about 10 per cent over 90—lower 10 per cent of scores have a general average 75, with 42 per cent failures, and none over 89.

Dividing the students studied into ten equal groups on the basis of test scores, the average freshman grades are:

Highest tenth, 85.9; second highest, 83.9; third highest, 82.9; fourth tenth, 82.0; fifth tenth, 81.5; sixth tenth, 80.0; seventh tenth, 80.1; eighth tenth, 78.7; ninth highest, 78.2; lowest tenth, 76.1.

Tests Are For Aptitude

Dr. Moss concludes, in regard to future uses, that:

"From the results obtained this year it would appear that the Scholastic Aptitude Test can be used to considerable advantage in the selection of medical students. It is not proposed that the tests should replace the current methods of selecting students, but that they should be an additional criterion. The next logical step in this study would be to make arrangements whereby similar tests, with different content will be given on the same day in all the medical schools of this association, to all the students applying for admission to any medical school."

"If, for example, a student who lived in California wished to enter Western Reserve he could take the test at Stanford or the University of California. The tests of all students would be forwarded to our office for scoring and tabulation. If the tests were given in the middle of April, all tabulations could be made by the latter part of May and a copy of the total tabulation of scores for all the ten or twelve thousand students together with the scores of the individual students applying for admission to any particular medical school could be sent to the dean concerned. In that way the dean could see at a glance how the students applying to his school compared with the group of pre-medical students as a whole. And, moreover, he could see at a glance how any individual student compared with others who were applying for admission to his school. Thus, he could admit those with the greatest promise."

Mu proves both the need for such a movement and its practicability. A meeting will be held in the very near future to formulate plans for the establishment of a chapter in Washington, if possible, in connection with The George Washington University. All students who are members of other chapters and attending the University will get in touch with Nathan L. Ferris of the New York Gamma Chapter whose telephone number is West 2521. From him may be secured information relative to the time and place of the preliminary meeting.

RADIO CLUB GATHERS

The Radio Club will hold its first November meeting Friday, in W-39, at 8:10 p. m. All radio amateurs are invited.

Samuel Gridley Hall will speak on "Polar Equations of the Straight-line Frequency Condenser," and there will be other talks on various subjects.

P. D. G. Girls To Fete Graduate Students

President and Mrs. Marvin and Provost and Mrs. Wilbur Among Those Invited

The Phi Delta Gamma Graduate Sorority will entertain the women students in the Graduate School at tea in the Women's Building, on Wednesday and Thursday, November 13 and 14, from five to seven. The teas are being held on two successive days as it is thought that most students will have at least one free class period during that time.

In addition to the women graduate students, invitations have been sent to President and Mrs. Marvin, Provost and Mrs. Wilbur, the deans of all colleges, the faculty of the Graduate School, Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Joshua Evans, and Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley.

Any graduate student not receiving an invitation is asked to communicate with Miss Emma Thom, the Northumberland Apartments, as an effort has been made to send individual invitations to all women registered in the Graduate School, and if anyone has been omitted it is due to an oversight.

FORENSIC FRATERNITY BIDS THREE STUDENTS

Butte, Conner and Morgall Initiated Into Phi Delta Gamma Thursday

Three students prominent in forensic activities of the University were formally initiated into Phi Delta Gamma, Professional Forensic Fraternity, at a meeting of the fraternity held Thursday evening, at the home of Paul Keough. The initiates were Woodbin L. Butte, Norman H. Conner and Ralph M. Morgall.

Woodbin L. Butte is a student of the Law School and was formerly a student of the School of Law at Yale University. While at Yale he was a member of the debating team and debated with the University of Porto Rico last year. He was also a member of the Centro Espagnole. He is a member of Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity.

Norman H. Conner a senior student of the Law School. He is a member of Acacia, Delta Theta Phi Legal Fraternity, and Phi Delta Epsilon, Honorary Journalistic Fraternity. He is a member of the Board of Editors of The University Hatchet and is president of The George Washington University Masonic Club. He is also a former member of the Glee Club, and is identified with several other University organizations.

Ralph M. Morgall is a student in Columbian College. He is a member of Sigma Mu Sigma Fraternity and is vice president of Columbian Debating Society. He is also a member of George Washington University Masonic Club.

Poetry Group Will Meet Next Wednesday

Baker's Poems Are Feature of First Meeting of Modern Poetry Club

The first regular meeting of the Modern Poetry Club is announced for Wednesday, November 20, at 1 o'clock, in Room 28, Building J. Courtland Darke Baker will read selections of original poetry.

Helen Drew and Max Harris Clarke are president and vice president, respectively, of the group. Nomination and election for the remaining officers will take place at this meeting.

While discussions of modern poets and their works will feature the meetings, any original poetry submitted by a member will be read and discussed.

During the year various members of the English Department will be invited to speak informally on the great poets with whom they are most familiar. Mr. Baker, who will inaugurate the season, has received general recognition for verse published in the "Black and White," an anthology of current poetry in this city.

FIRST GATHERING OF YEAR HELD BY EPISCOPALIANS

Club to Study Religious Faiths of the World at Meetings

The first meeting of the G. W. Episcopal Club was held Thursday evening in Corcoran Hall, having been preceded by a supper at a neighboring tea room.

The club decided to establish a question box for the determination of personal problems and such questions should be sent in unsigned to Virginia Bonifant at 808 Twenty-first Street Northwest. A study of the different religious faiths of the world will also be undertaken by the club with the Quaker Church the first to be studied. The next meeting of the club is scheduled for Wednesday, November 27.

GROPP WILL ADDRESS GERMAN CLUB MEETING

An illustrated lecture on post-war Berlin by Paul Gropp, assistant professor of German, will be the feature of the next meeting of the German Club to be held next Wednesday, November 20, in the Alpha Delta Theta sorority rooms in Building M. Professor Gropp will use a lantern slide during his talk. Following the address there will be a duet by William Lovins playing an oboe, and Francis Shull on a flute. Also refreshments will be served. Any students interested in German are invited to attend.

S. A. E. LEADING LEAGUE B; OTHER CIRCUIT IS IN TIE

Sigma Nu Loses Thriller As Sigma Alpha Epsilon Wins, 25-24

4 FRATERNITIES MAY WIN TITLE IN LEAGUE A

K. A. and S. P. E. Win Games; Phi Sigs Score 51 Points Against T. D. X.

In a game replete with thrills the Sigma Alpha Epsilon quint nosed out Sigma Nu in the last few minutes of play, 25-24. The S. A. E.'s practically clinched the championship of League B as a result of this victory.

On the same night Sigma Phi Epsilon defeated Kappa Sigma in a League A game, thereby giving four teams a chance to carry off the gonfalon in that league. The teams still remaining in the running are Phi Sigma Kappa, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Phi Sigs meet the S. P. E.'s on Friday night and the K. A.'s and the Kappa Sigs play Wednesday, in regular scheduled games. The winners of these two games will then have to play a game the first part of next week to determine the championship.

Burgess Plays Well

The S. A. E. Sigma Nu game was one of the most exciting games ever played in the interfraternity series in several years. With the championship of the league at stake, both teams battled furiously to gain the verdict. Neither team had more than a few points lead at any time and the lead was constantly changing. With Burgess playing superb ball, the Sig Alphas were leading 14 to 10 as the half ended. They maintained their lead throughout the third quarter, but as the last quarter started Sigma Nu took the lead. In the last few minutes Thompson tossed in a snowbird which decided the fray. Forrest Burgess and Bob Galloway starred in the offensive play.

Four games were played in League A last week, and as a result every team in the league has lost at least one game. Four of the teams have only one loss checked against them. The Kappa Sigs suffered their first setback on Friday night when S. P. E. spurred in the last half to win the game handily. The score at half time was 5 to 4 in favor of the ultimate winners, while the game finally ended 22-14. Reds

DOUGLAS BEMENT GIVES "MERCHANT OF VENICE"

Paul Linchberger Has Role in Play Presented by Shakespearean Society

Douglas Bement spoke before the Shakespeare Society of Washington at a meeting held in the Corcoran Art Gallery auditorium on the evening of November 4. His topic was "Can Shakespeare Be Modernized?" and in illustration of his lecture scenes were presented from the "Merchant of Venice," first in the original and then in modern dress with modern grammar as rearranged by Mr. Bement.

The Shakespeare Society presents every month, on the first Monday of the month, a lecture on some Shakespearean or associated topic, illustrated with scenes. Dean Wilbur has spoken on other occasions before the society, and is scheduled to speak again this coming year.

The cast of the play included a George Washington student, Paul Linchberger, who acted the part of Bassanio. The portions presented were the scenes in which the Prince of Aragon and the Prince of Morocco sue for the hand of Portia. W. E. Bryant played as Morocco; Mr. Newman Aragon; Mrs. Bryant, Portia; and Rosemary Arnold, Nerissa.

The original version, though more impressive, was perhaps less appreciated by the audience, which understood it, seemed the revised presentation much more clearly. The modern version was by no means so vivid in the picturesqueness and appropriateness of its diction and costume as was the original.

G. W. students present were Lewis Dembitz, James Wingo, and John Barbers.

MUNSELL GIVES ADDRESS

Dr. Hazel Munsell, of the Home Economics Bureau of the Department of Agriculture, gave a special lecture on vitamins, to the seminar class of Nutrition and Dietetics, Wednesday night. Lantern slides were used to illustrate the lecture.

Harris chalked up nine points for the victors.

S. A. E. Swamps Acacia

Kappa Alpha was twice victorious, winning over Sigma Phi Epsilon and Delta Tau Delta. The K. A.'s had little difficulty in marking up the victories and the playing of Sturdevant and Babcock was instrumental in giving their team the edge in both games.

Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Alpha Epsilon won one-sided games during the week over Theta Delta Chi and Acacia respectively. The Phi Sigs ran roughshod in their game, winning 51-3, as McClellan, Zahn and Perry scored at will. The S. A. E.'s trampled Acacia 53-8, with Thompson leading the scoring.
